MRS. HESSON NOMINATED

Mrs. Jean A. Hesson, a seventh grade teacher in the Appomattox Elementary School, has been nominated for president of District F of the Virginia Education Association.

A former president of the Appomattox Education Association, she has served on various committees of this organization and has represented this group as their delegate to the annual convention of the Virginia Education Association on several occasions and has also attended leadership conferences sponsored by the VEA.

Mrs. Hesson is a graduate of Appomattox High School and Lonwood College and has taken additional classes at Lynchburg College. While at Longwood she was a member of Theta Simga Upsilon sorority and the Association of Childhood Education. She began her teaching career in Henry County, where she taught one year before coming to Appomattox County. She has been ver yactive in school activities and has been the sponsor of the SCA in the Appomattox Elementary School for the past 5 years, and has served on P.-T. A. committees.

Under her leadership in the seventh grade, the academic offering has been strengthened and she has carried forward the principles of curriculum development daily in her classroom work. Student teachers from Longwood College have been under her supervision since the addition of this program of activity in the elementary school.

Mrs. Hesson is a native of Gladstone, Nelson County, and was the former Jean Akers before her marriage to Julian Hesson. They are the parents of a son and daughter. She is active in civic, church, and community affairs as well as the professional ones. At present she is financial secretary, teacher, and pianist in her church.

Selected price rises in paper reported.

Come to church on Easter Sunday

Easter .. a time of hope and happiness

In the Easter miracle, there is hope and inspiration to lift the heart and reward the spirit. Share the joy of Easter with your family, friends, neighbors . . . come to church on Easter Sunday.

Easter is one of the major Seasons and Events of the year. It's religious significance is so tremendous that it should and must overshadow the concept that it is "just another holiday" and commercial occasion. It is our inherritance that we can work and live and strive for "the good life" in the firm belief and knowledge of immortality, because Easter is our proof.

Indeed, over most of the world, Easter has come to stand for New Life, New Hope, New Inspiration. The glorious Season of Spring shows us so dramatically that from the death of Winter comes the Life of Spring.

We take this occasion to urge your support of our Churches. This Easter week-end, many very special religious program are being held. Attend the Church of your choice and do so with joy and reverence, and be proud that in America we may Worship in Freedom and true Faith. Our Churches are a solid bulwark of Civilization. Our Religious Faith is a basic foundation in a Free Society. Do not neglect the Things of the Soul; support the Church and Religious Heritage of America. Perhaps you will desire to make Church Attendance this week-end a Family Occasion.

As Appomattox Business Firms, we are pleased to be able to associate ourselves with the Churches of our area, and commend them to you.

We wish for each of you a . . . . HAPPY EASTER.
